Tour 1

Ride up
by Eckbauer Bahn cable car & Partnach Gorge

This tour starts with a ride up to the top terminal of the Eckbauer mountain on 1236 m, which offers you a wonderful view over Garmisch-Partenkirchen. You will walk through calm forests and pass Graseck on your way to Partnach Gorge (entry fee not included). With its impressive waterfalls, a total length of 700 m and a depth of 80 m, this is definitely one of the highlights for every visitor. Take the comfortable, non-busy street to return to the starting point at the base terminal.

Hiking time approx. 2 hours

Tour 2

Ride up by Eckbauer Bahn cable car
& hike via Wamberg

Take the Eckbauer Bahn cable car up to the top on 1236 m. This is the ideal starting point for a hike to the highest-located church village in Germany: Wamberg at 996 m. To get there, follow the signs to Wamberg at the top terminal. A wonderful hiking path leads through the local forest and alongside the grasslands of the mountain. The hike back will lead you down to the Kainzenbad open air swimming pool, next to the Ski Stadium.

Hiking time approx. 2 hours

Tour 3

Ride up,
hike to Elmau Castle via Elmauer Alm and back to Eckbauer Bahn cable car, ride down

The third tour starts with a ride up by the Eckbauer Bahn cable car. One you arrived at the top, take the path in the direction of Wamberg. At the parting of the ways, take the direction to "Elmauer Alm". You will reach Elmauer Alm via a forestry road in about 1.5 hours. After your rest with the idyllic mountain view, continue to Schloss Elmau castle on a hiking track. From here, the forestry road leads you back to the top terminal. Enjoy the magnificent view at the alpine panorama on your ride down.

Hiking time approx. 4.5 hours
